

Getting ready for ‘Good Old Summertime’

Well, if the spring is any indication, the good old summertime is going to be another hot one.

So, we’re all calling the heating and air conditioning gurus to help us stay cool and keep down the power bill.

Already, we have had to postpone a couple of grass cuttings because of the draught conditions, but it probably won’t be long before the showers arrive.

Those who have sprinkler systems are already showering.

In order to escape the heat, or embrace it, many are planning vacations in the mountains or on the beach.

Remember to let your neighbors help you by advising them you will be away and letting them help you by keeping an extra-close lookout on your place while you are gone. News or-

Williams resigns; Snyder joins HCHA board

Charles Snyder (6504 S.) has joined the HCHA board to fill the unexpired term of Jesse Williams, who decided to pass the baton after 14 years of excellent service. Williams said he has enjoyed serving on the board, but wants to spend more time traveling and participating in other family activities.

The board sincerely thanks Williams for his faithful and dedicated community service, especially in negotiating and supervising our lawn care and maintenance contracts.

Snyder, a very caring neighbor and homeowner, has accepted the task once handled so well by Jesse.

Neighborhood Get-Together Postponed

A number of circumstances have led to a decision by the board to postpone our neighborhood get-together until the fall. At this point, the afternoon gathering will be held Oct. 1 at the home of Marty and Suellen Forsyth 1116 West.

Charles has helped the board in many situations and helped neighbors with lawn care, fence building, pressure washing and a myriad of other chores.

He and his wife, Darlene, have helped with seasonal decorating and planting at the entrance of our neighborhood. So, please help us welcome Charles to the board.

And, let's all make sure Jesse and his wife, Ann, know how much we appreciate their kindnesses, sacrifices and service. We are truly blessed to have such caring and serving neighbors.

TAKE THE SURVEY

The Mobile Police Department is conducting a survey of your attitudes and opinions regarding the quality of services. The department invites your comments and opinions and has a survey online.

Parking on the Street

Parking on the street is permitted. For visitors and short-term stays, it is understandable. If there are two or more cars in a family and only one can be kept inside the garage, please make all efforts possible to park the other vehicle or vehicles in the driveway, but not blocking the sidewalk.

Traffic has difficulty seeing around vehicles parked in the street and delivery vehicles have had some close calls because vehicles park on both sides of the street — many times close together.

Good Old Summertime

ganizations have been warning folks about how crime increases when school is out for the summer.

Please keep a close eye out for cars, trucks and vans that do not belong in the neighborhood. Take down license tag numbers and get descriptions of the vehicle and the occupants, if you can. If you really want to keep folks out who have no business in the neighborhood, take photographs of them with your iPhone, or just pretend to be taking pictures with it.

They'll get the idea.

We now have several vacant houses in our neighborhood, which are different challenges. We can make sure those coming onto the properties are actually contracted workers or sales people. Don't be afraid to call a realtor, or owner if you have the number, and ask them if workers are supposed to be on their property that day.

If possible, just walk over and see what's going on. Folks who are supposed to be there will usually identify themselves and tell you what they are preparing to do. If they are reluctant, call authorities.

Sincere thanks go out to those who responded to our call to clean and maintain drainage ditches behind their houses. Many do this as a routine chore, but sometimes a reminder is a good thing.

When a situation arises that means a homeowner can not clean a ditch, or there is maintenance beyond their capabilities, please let the board know and we will do all we can to find help for those who need help completing this important task.

Lawn Maintenance Schedule: This schedule has been modified to include cutting weeks in November and December. We have already had occasion to forego grass cutting in this season's extreme drought condition. Brown Lawn Care does an excellent job and is working very closely with the board. Our thanks go out to Eddie Brown and his crew for their work ethic and helpful attitudes.
